

Book Fair

Haryana Prathamik Shiksha Pariyojna Parishad implementing the SSA and RMSA projects and Education Department jointly organized two days Book Fair/Exhibitions for the first time in all the 21 districts of the state. Publishers were invited from all over the country by issuing press advertisements. Between 40 to 50 publishers participated in the book fairs with vast range of their publications on different subjects. Transportation arrangements were made especially for students from rural area schools to visit the Book Fairs alongwith their teachers. All the heads of the schools were directed to place the orders for purchase of library books in association with the PTA members, school students and committee constituted by Head Office. The students (both boys and girls) in huge number in all the districts enjoyed the book fairs, selected and recommended books for their school libraries to their teachers. The school students of the state for the first time got an exposure to a variety of books on literature, fiction, sports. In some districts the students from local private schools also visited the Book Fairs. The book fairs were liked and appreciated by the students and teachers as well. The book fairs in the state were a great success.

